Dedication

To Mary Immaculate, the Queen of all Fransalians, the staff dedicates the Fransalian of 1954.

May those who follow us keep alive the true Fransalian spirit and accept the challenge Our Lady offers in these times of international crisis—to carry her message to the world, not in words but through Catholic Action.

SENIOR CLASS

Highly-spirited, generous to a fault, and emerging unscathed from four years of hard, grueling work, come the seniors of the class of 1954.

The realization that high school life is real and earnest will be revealed once and for all on June 6 when the coveted diploma will be received from the hands of Archbishop Urban J. Vehr in City Auditorium.

With editor's pencil, photographer's camera, printer's rule, the following pages have been collected to record glimpses of the life of seniors during the scholastic year of 1954. The joys and triumphs of the seniors and their classmates are faithfully recorded for all time.

Through these pages, lies the true meaning of the Fransaliam motto, the Beauty of the Diety, for all our work, prayer and play are done for the greater honor and glory of God.

JUNIOR CLASS

To Alice
Best wishes for success in your last year
Junior Class Jockey

The juniors have memories of a gay skating party in October and the fulfillment of all their Prom dreams.

Charles Leonard and Clarence Van Deren enjoy the pictures of the juniors in the homecoming booklet held by Margaret Fitzpatrick.

Let's look back

good and congratulations on that Sweet Day

A backward glance through high school days would never be complete without the photographs of those who were part of the Fransalian backstage of 1954. Never shall we forget the loyal support given us by these fellow-Fransalians in all the senior projects.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Class Officers

At the desk: Norma Lou Artzer, Louis Nelan and Nancy Werthman. Standing: Rosetta Wolf, Joseph Jordan, Celia Jacques, Jack Fulham, Jo Ann McGuire, William Vorbeck, Paul Watson, and Marilyn Dell.

Our friends in the sophomore class are particularly noted for an outstanding school spirit. The class has absorbed the lesson that prayer, work and play make the true Fransalian. By following this pattern the sophomores hope to receive on Commencement Day '56 the coveted title of Fransalian graduate.

The Christmas Story

Monica Golden

The stars that shine on Christmas
Are not the stars we know
They are the angels' candles
Which make the heaven's glow.

They shone down on Bethlehem
A night so long ago,
Heralding the lovely Christ Child
The King of high and low.

As we gaze toward heaven
We often wonder how
The inn-man said to Joseph
"Please don't disturb me now.

You are too poor, O humbly dressed
To rest yourself in here.
For there are men more rich than thou
Who come from far and near.

But if you search for rest tonight,
O man of lowly trade
There is a stable not far from here
Beyond the river, by the glade."

And so on that cold starlit night
Was born the Child that nations praise,
And due to a promise loving made
He will be with us all our days.

Sophomore Hi-lites

Student Wins Voice Award

Barbara Morgan, a sophomore of St. Francis de Sales high school, placed second in the seventh annual speech contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Barbara was awarded a $25 defense bond for her five minute discussion on "I Speak for Democracy." In her speech, the St. Francis' sophomore, viewed Democracy as the place it would have in the hands of a young French Jewish boy who had just enrolled in the sophomore class of St. Francis. The 17-year-old student of St. Francis Academy, Rita Vigil was awarded the $50 defense bond. Third place was won by Cameron, Jr., also a sophomore.

Sophomore Girls Take First Place

"Look at that black design."
"Isn't that one on the bulletin board beautiful?"
"I didn't know you could make Christmas posters with geometric designs."

These are some of the comments made by the students during the noon hour when they follow the line that leads to 11A and examine the geometric Christmas designs that decorate the mathematics room.

Pupils of Sister Mary Martin's Geometry class have been working the past month on designing creative posters that are made of geometric figures. Mothers of students served as judges and the best poster submitted

Our youngest comrades and companions are the loyal freshmen. It was our pleasure to prepare a special welcome for them when they entered the hallowed halls of St. Francis. We watched them follow in our footsteps by joining the Sodality, the Missions, the Glee Club, and other activities of the school. They intend to fill the places on the Gremlin eleven that will be left vacant by Fred Burke, Thomas Coogan, Edward Duffy and Fred Boom.

HI-LITES

Red Letter Day

Reception into Our Lady's Sodality in December.

Welcome Day

The Seniors played the roles of big brothers and sisters early in October and made us members of the cast of '54.

May Day

Our first opportunity to take part in May Day at St. Francis. We shall always be remembered as the freshman class of the Marian Year.

HISTORY

Alice Breese and Jerry Dobbs conduct a class in the American Way of living. Interested listeners are: Margaret Guerin, Diane McGruder, Ray Bruno and Carolyn Wathen.

CIVICS

Freshmen of St. Francis study problems that have confronted men in the past and they discuss these problems in their relation to problems of the present. At the desk is Janice Uberechen surrounded by Donald Fruh, Patricia Carraher, Joseph Ryan, Joanne Killian, Bernard O'Lear.

Du Pont and Monsanto will be able to hire scientists in the near future because of the Physics class. The lone girl who holds her own against the boys is Joanne McInnis; Frank Zook is wondering just what Charles Leonard is planning to do.

SCIENCE

LATIN

The Helvetians are attacked! The Romans are at the foot of the mountain and the top of the mountain. When the sophomores finish Caesar, the Romans will be all over the mountains.

MATH

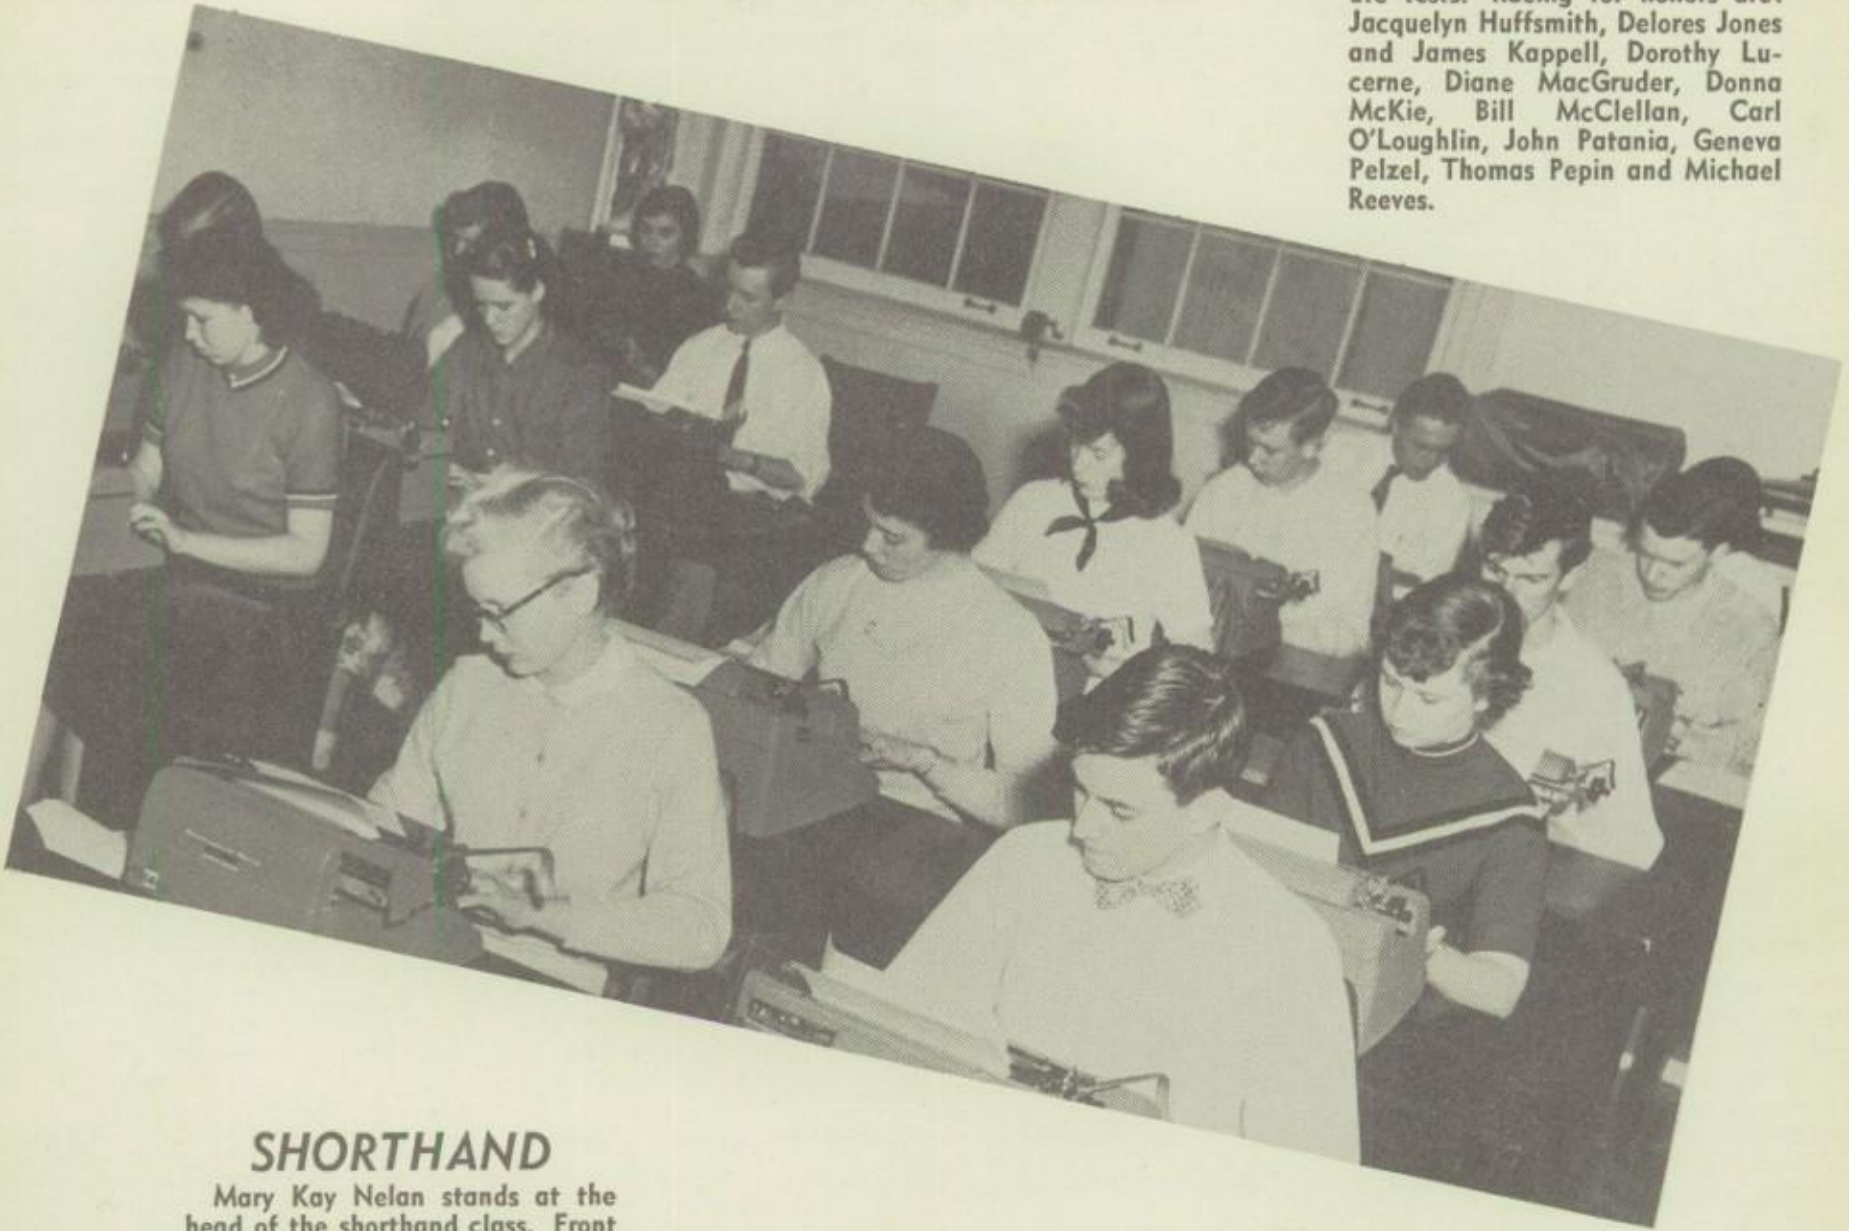

Triangles, polygons, rhombus, are but a few of the words that add to the perplexities of sophomores in Geometry. Robert Nau is clarifying Geometric terms for girls by illustrations at the board. Robert's pupils are: Annita Phannenstiel, Donna Kelly, Virginia Giles and Marguerite Dean.

Lola Fultz and Andrew Dickson plot together to complete bridges in trigonometry class. At the other board Charles Leonard is content to make plans for the oil wells. Dorsey Hudson (front row) is very much interested in Carl O'Loughlin's drawings.

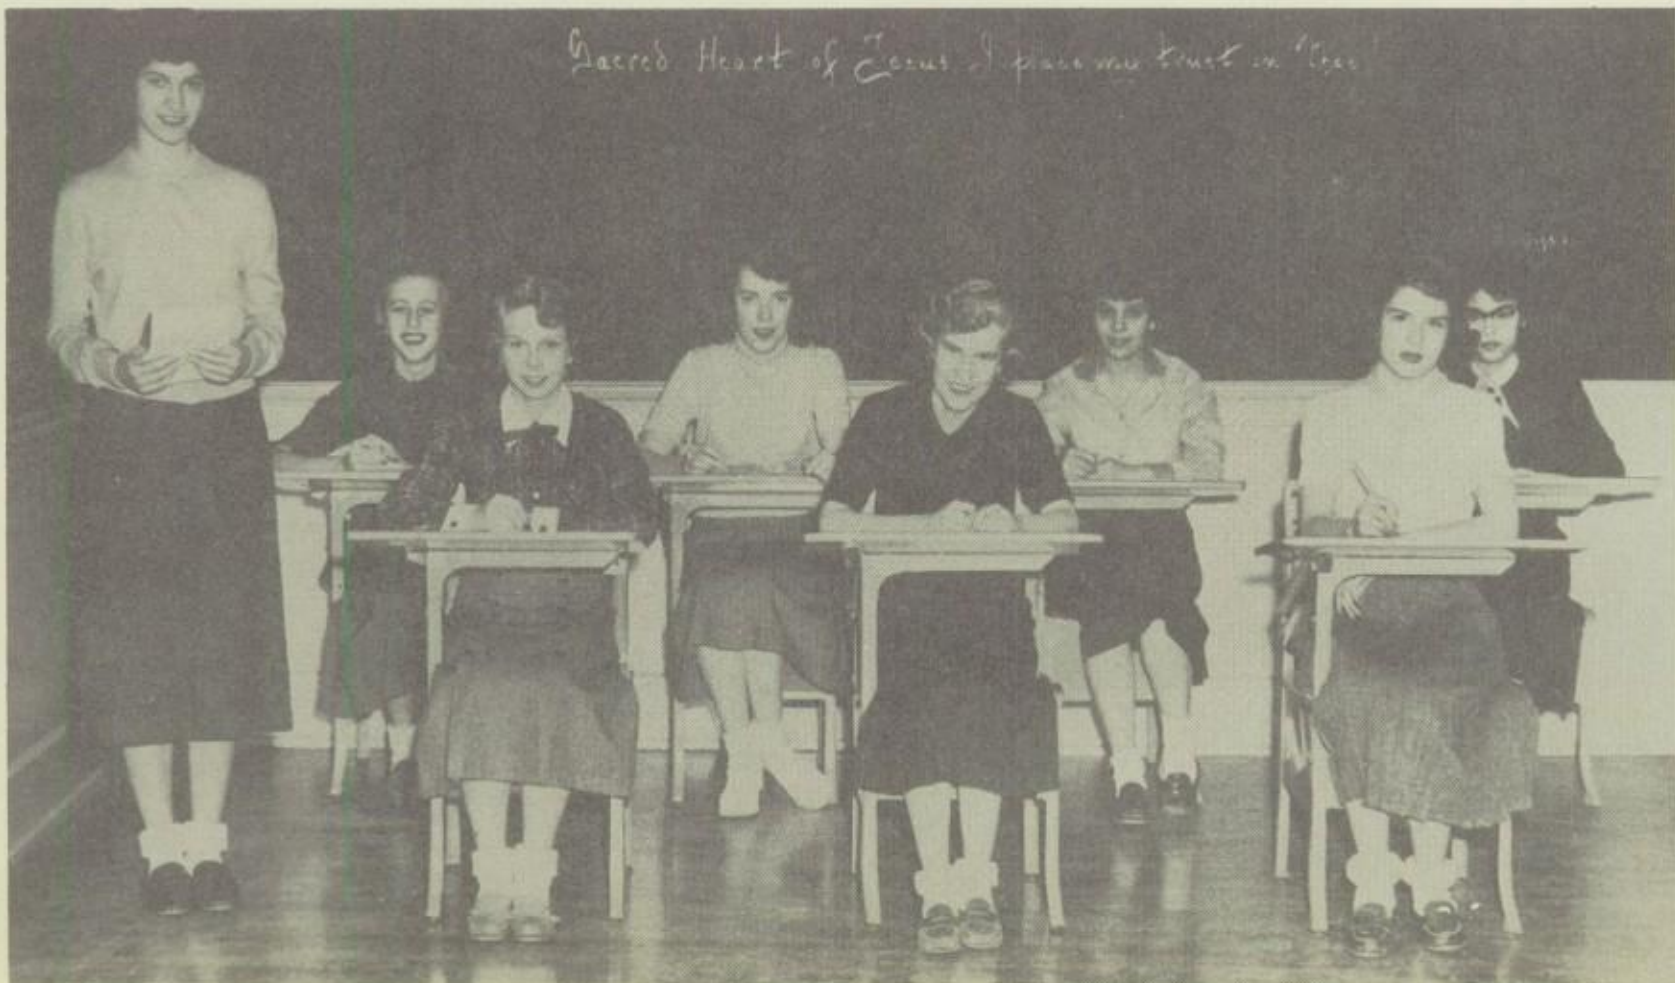

TYPING

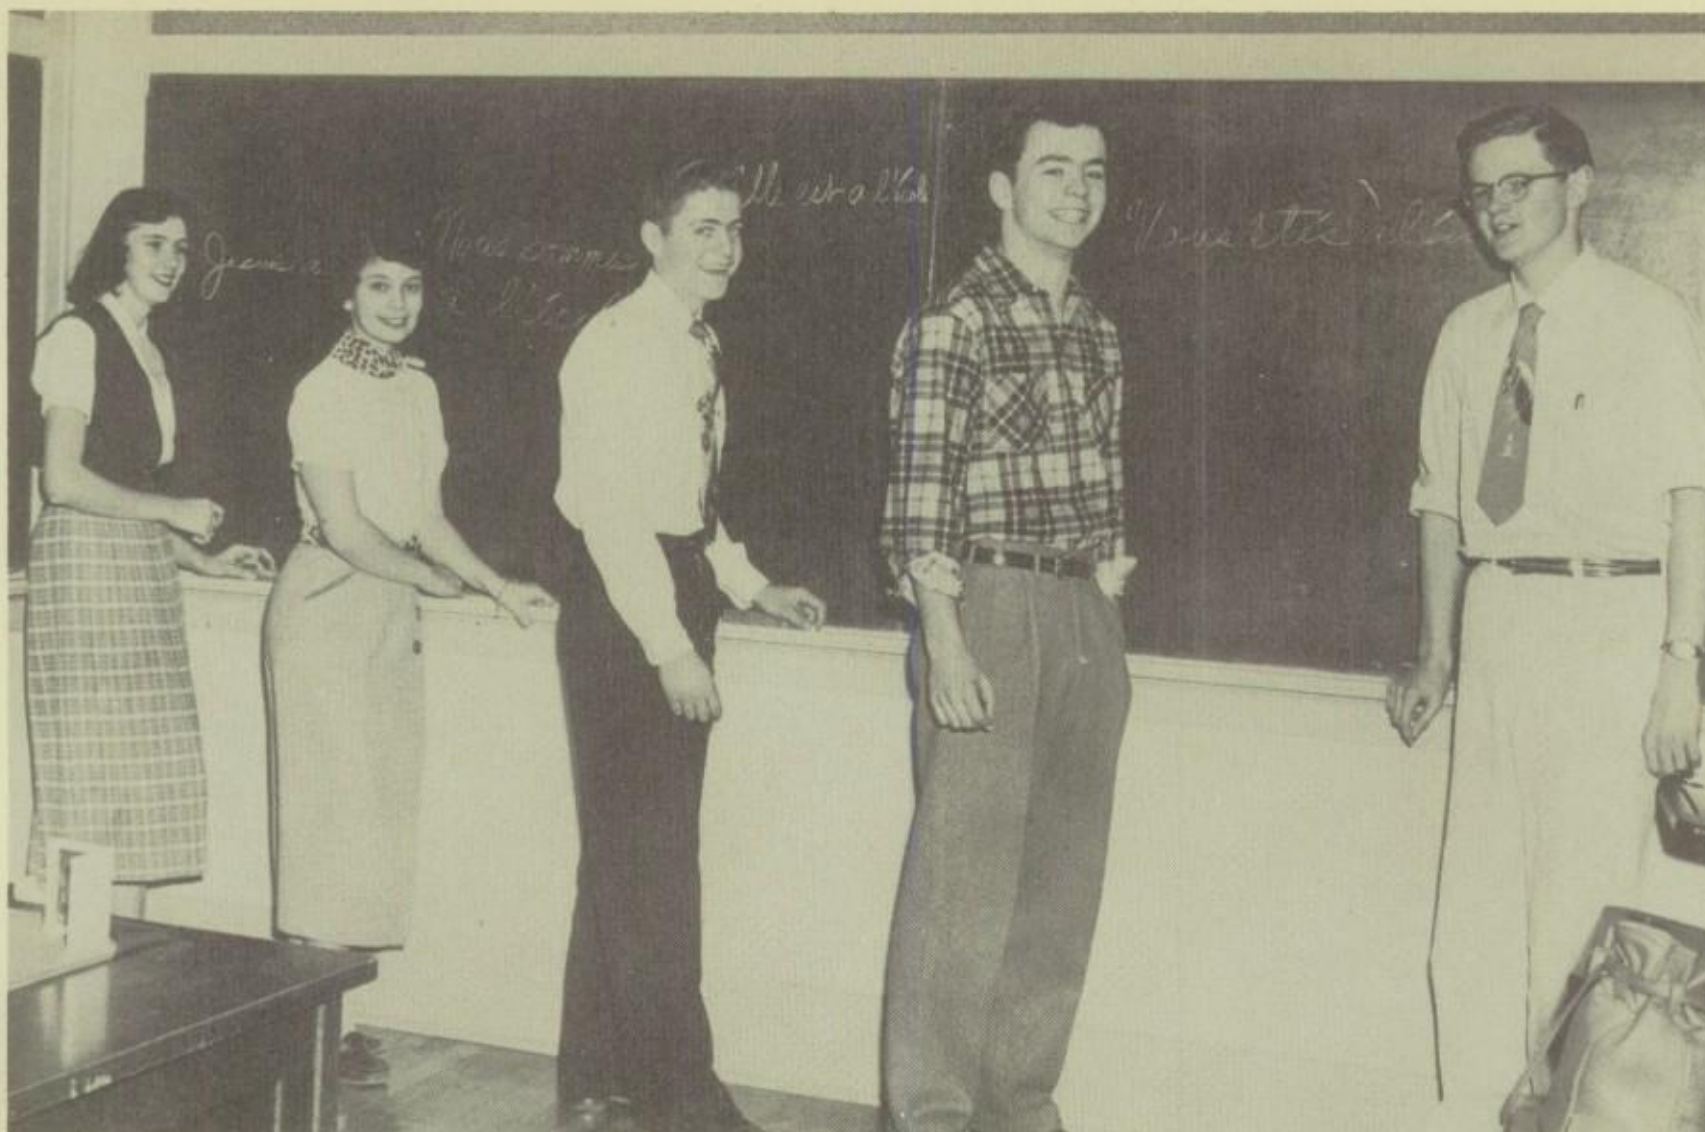

Junior typists race speedily and accurately through their ten minute tests. Racing for honors are: Jacquelyn Huffsmith, Delores Jones and James Kappell, Dorothy Lucerne, Diane MacGruder, Donna McKie, Bill McClellan, Carl O'Loughlin, John Patania, Geneva Pelzel, Thomas Pepin and Michael Reeves.

SHORTHAND

French for Fransalians . . .

From the sentences on the board it is evident that a number of French people are on their way to school. French students from left are: Jeanne Williams, Rita Turelli, John Gunzner, Thomas Burke and Raymond Lawlor.

Was Calpurnia Really That Small?

BOOKKEEPING

"If I only had all these assets"
Joseph Craven, Chrystelle Vasques,
Daniel Kratz, Jean Neavill, Mary
O'Mara, Lucille Gibbons, Mary
Connors, James Highfill, Nancy
Isenberg and Patricia Lamirato,
"then maybe my books would balance."

ART

National Forensic League

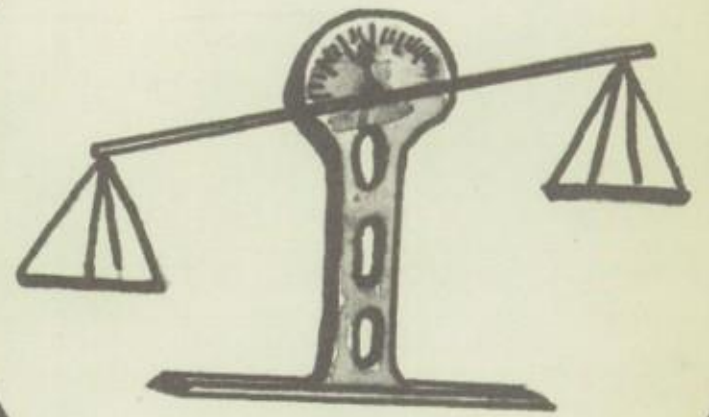

Membership in the National Forensic League is open to speech students of St. Francis de Sales. The members represent the school in speech meets at Loretto Heights and Regis College. Members have also taken part in debate meets held at Boulder, Colorado Springs and Greeley.

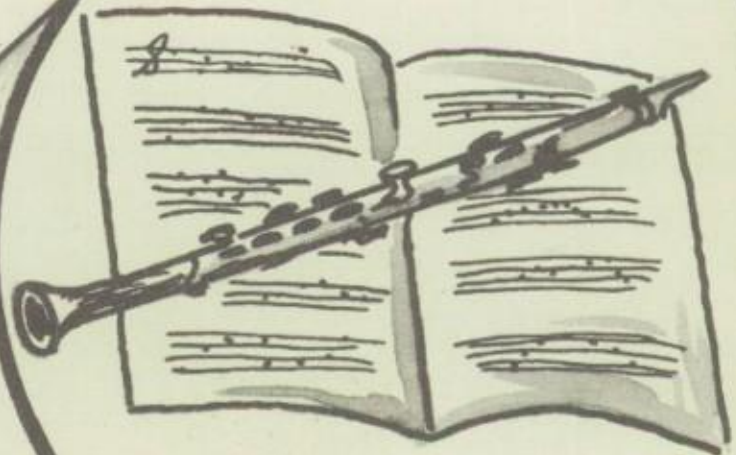

Putting forth their constant efforts these NFL officers have brought interest in speech meets to faculty and students of St. Francis. Returning from a speech meet in Boulder, the officers stand proud and happy as they hold the trophy of the NFL. From left are: President, Thomas Murnan; Kay Glowes, treasurer; Arlene McLaughlin, vice president and Bernard Stebenne, secretary.

ACTIVITIES

STebenne

Now Pat, you can't be that tired already! Gloria Suntrup, Ruth Lederhos and Roberta Hawn chuckle merrily over Patricia Lamirato's attempt to appear camera-shy.

Seasoned travelers, Janet Burke, Joan Anderson, Patricia and Margie McCabe are caught by surprise at the camera flash.

Father Walter Harris, S.J., brother of Father Edward Harris, relaxes between lectures for the underclassmen's Retreat.

Father Edward Harris imparts his blessing to the senior boys in the chapel at the Broadmoor Hotel.

Sister Rose Daniel and Sister Mary Martin smile delightedly in anticipation of the joy of chaperoning the senior girls on the Broadmoor Retreat.

Marian Year Officers

One of the happiest memories for Sodality officers of 1954 is the remembrance of being officers of Our Lady during the Marian Year. The four officers pictured at the Sodality bulletin board are from left: Clarence Van Deren, vice prefect; Mary Conley, prefect; Phyllis Sticksel, treasurer and Lawrence Springer, secretary.

Fransalian Sodality

Project

*"The Sacred Heart
for the World;*

*The World for
The Sacred Heart"*

With this motto to spur them on, the CSMC members of St. Francis de Sales take an active part in the Missions. This Mission spirit is especially encouraged and guided by Sister M. Damien, moderator. Meetings are held monthly for the student body as an inspiration for missionaries to continue their work in the winning of souls for Christ.

Every student at St. Francis is a member of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. Each home room has a mission representative who attends the weekly meetings of the officers. These representatives are responsible for stamp collections and other activities sponsored by the mission unit.

MISSION ACTIVITIES

Contributions to Home and Foreign Missions
Stamp Collection
Wednesday Sacrifice Collection
Bishops' Relief Fund
Correspondence With Foreign Students

Mission Entertainers

The CSMC meetings conducted by the officers use the field of entertainment to urge a greater interest from the student body in the field of foreign missions. Pictured above in a missions skit are: Joseph Ryan, Virginia Whitney, Dymna Luebeck, Norman Silva, Carol Springer and Nora Jacquez.

Mission Officers

Dogs For Sale . . .

Joan Gamel, president, plunges the good old American hot dogs into boiling water while her assistants spread mustard on rolls. The assistants are: Shelia Polniak, Mary Kenz, Carol Siems, Virginia Whitney and Joanne McInnis.

Handwritten note:

 H. H. H.

PLENTY OF PEP

Monsignor Smith's Feast Day March 12, 1954

Double Celebration

The feast of St. Gregory on March 12 was celebrated in the traditional manner by the class of 1954. The dinner was also an occasion for the seniors to congratulate their Spiritual Leader on his recent appointment to the second highest office in the diocese—Vicar General.

Music for Seniors

All's Well . . .

Chuck! What did you say to get these mixed expressions from the senior cast who produced the mystery comedy, Drums of Death? Trying to figure out your quip are back row from left: Neal Meyers, Hugh Mahoney, Thomas Murnan and Thomas O'Rourke. Seated from left are: Arlene McLaughlin, Kay Glowes, Kathryn Joyce, Patricia Patterson and Margie McCabe.

Guilty or Innocent?

Did Arlene McLaughlin faint because of guilt or because of fright? Hugh Mahoney and Kathryn Joyce are really perplexed over the answer.

African Echoes . . .

Her spirit is receiving the message of the drums! Chrystelle Vasques faithfully answers the summons of the African call.

Stage Crew . . .

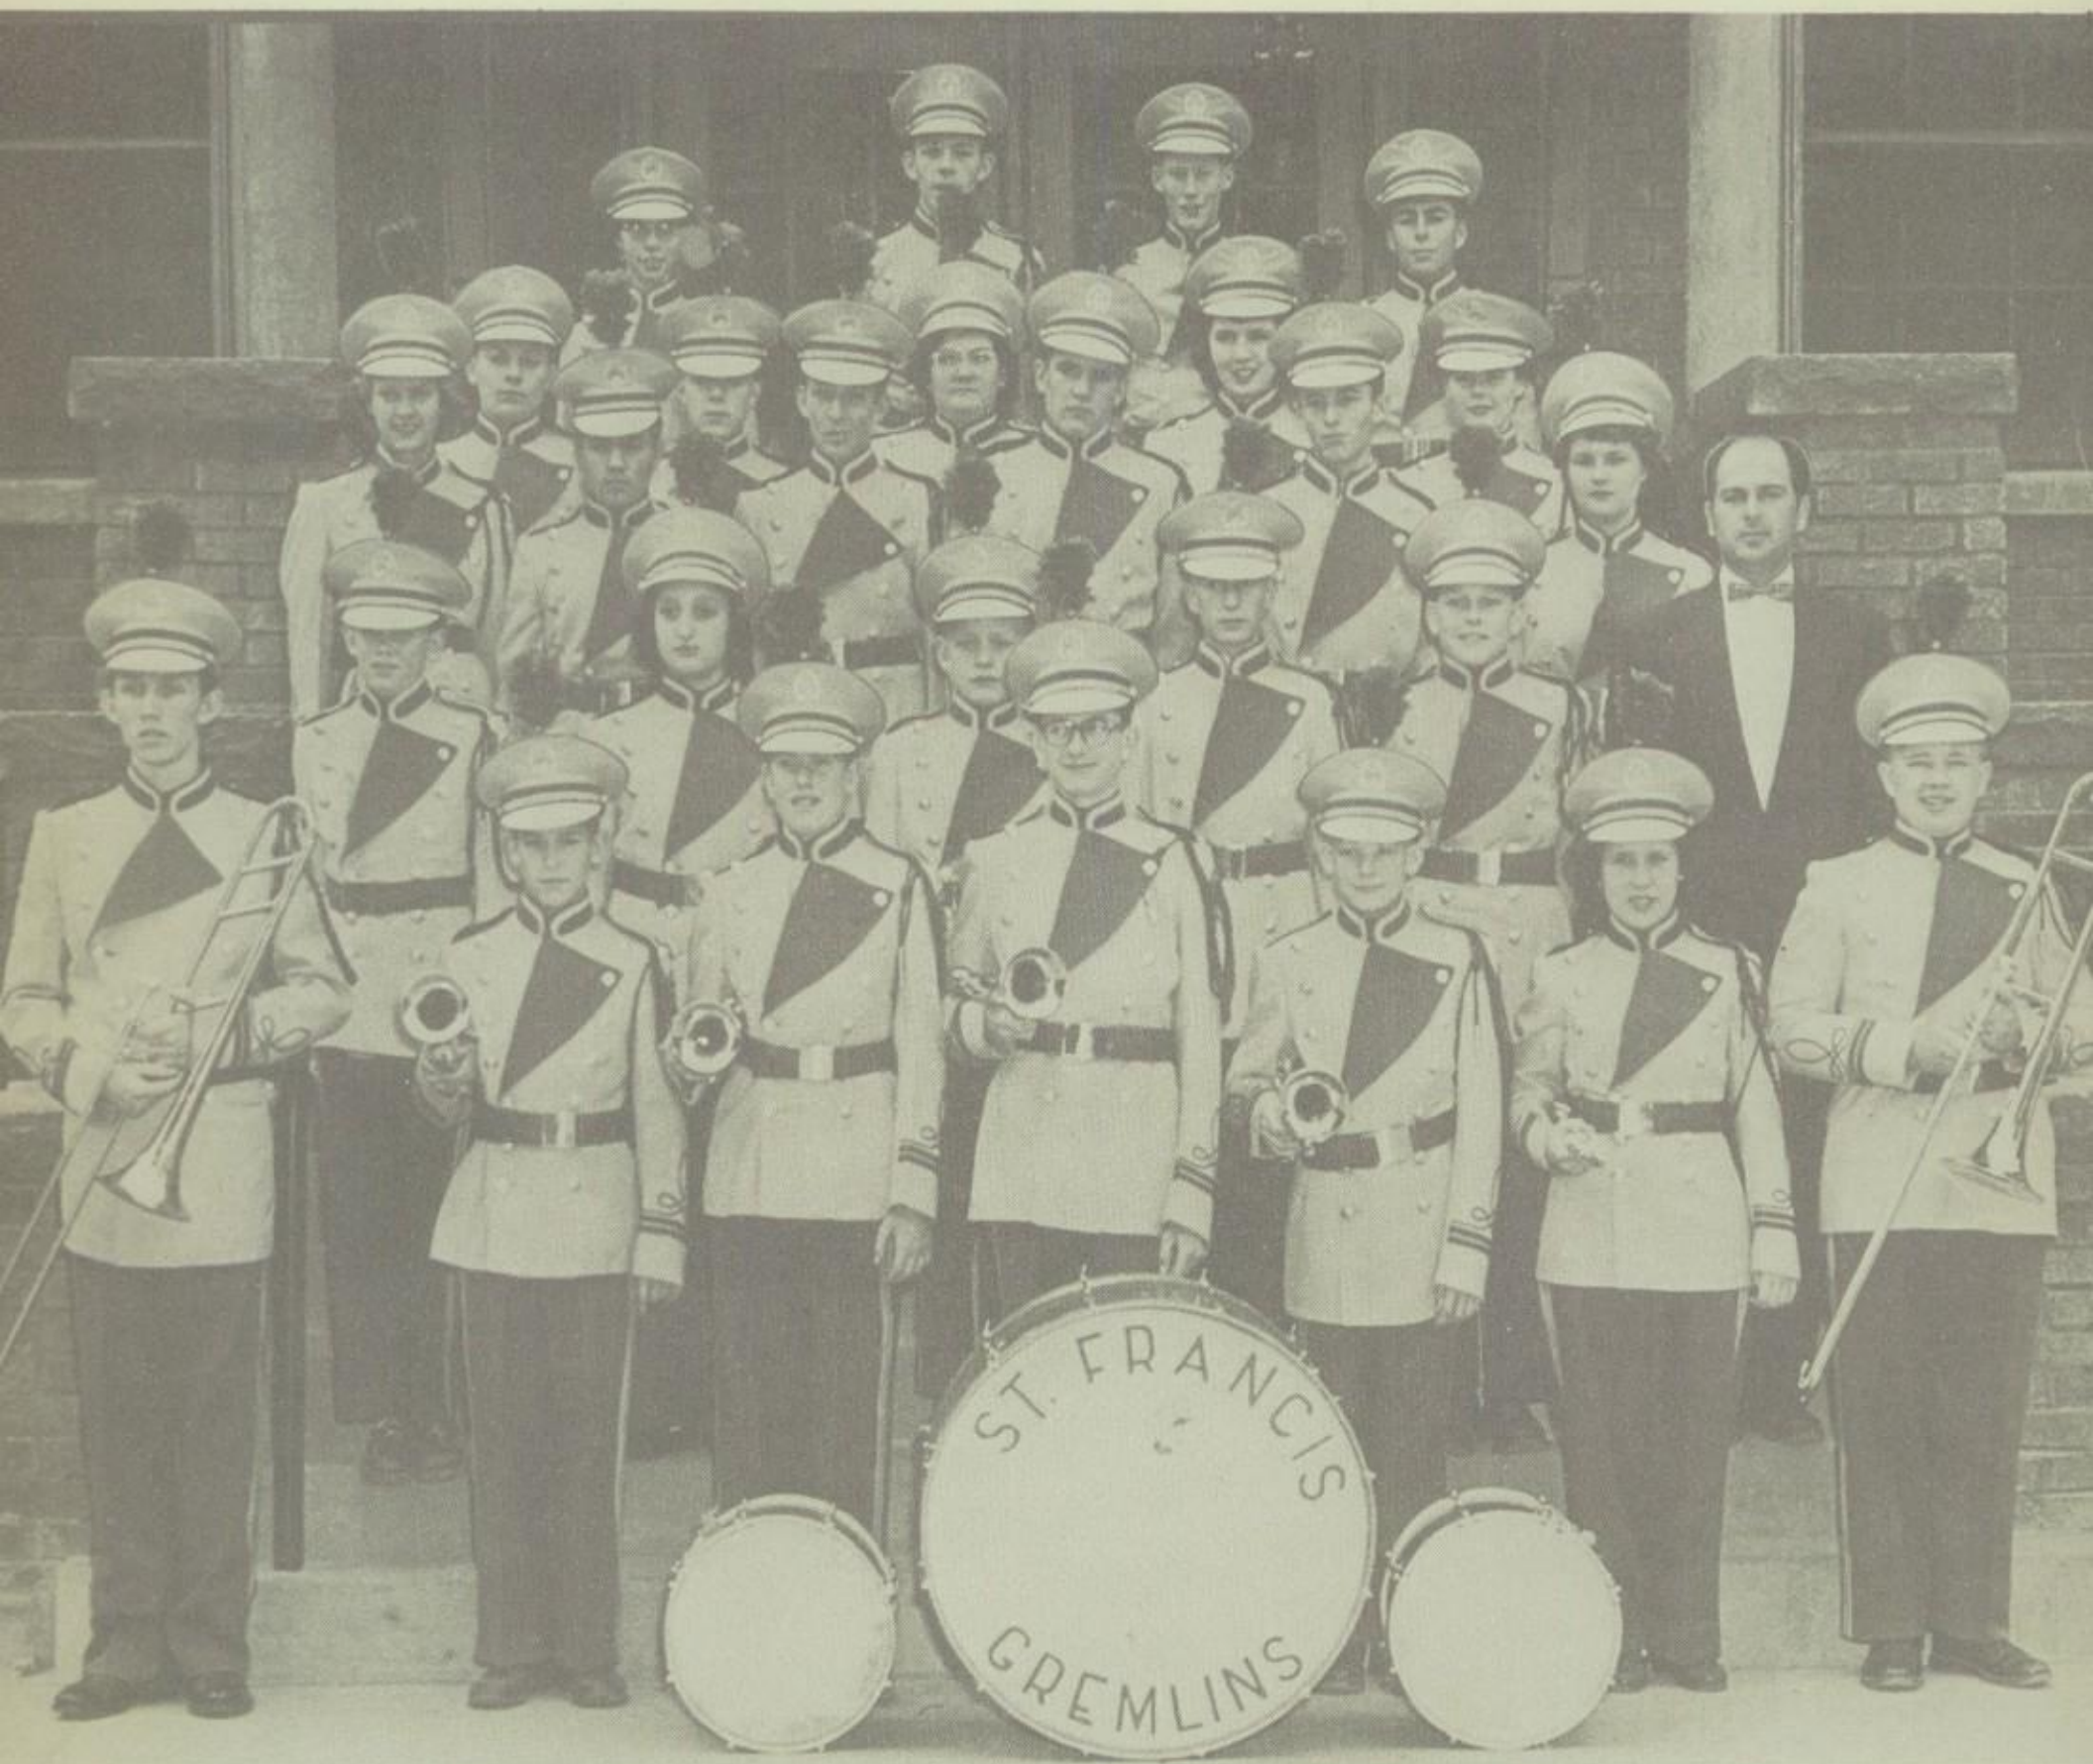

Follow the directions! The stage crew worked hard to interpret the conflicting messages that came back stage at the eleventh hour. From left: James Weber, Edward Duran, Paul Ross and Joseph Weber.

House of No Escape . . .

It would be the sophomores! In the corner at right, Judy Muckenthaler and Nancy Werthman try to bring Peggy Partsch down to the snow-covered ground.

Red Cross

Workers

Sister Anna Adelaide and a group of students organized the first Red Cross unit early in September of 1953. The St. Francis unit has specialized in helping Veterans and their children.

During the scholastic year just passed, the senior girls assisted Mother Thomasine in discharging the many duties involved in running an office. Seated at the table from left, Mary Connors and Joan Gamel. Standing from left are: Marylyn Thornton, Barbara Young, Margaret Kleinschnitz, Marilyn Nelson, Maryangela Garrier, Carol Siems, Patricia Ryan and Catherine Caskins.

Library Club

Experienced and efficient are the student-librarians who assist Sister Theodore in the library. Maridel Kerls rearranges books on the shelves, while Jacquelyn Sheridan checks the files. Judith Hanson dictates to Teresa Lawlor.

At the receiving desk are: Diane MacGruder, Karen Ross, Shirley Golder and Mary Jo Catlett.

The Fransalian, official publication of St. Francis de Sales high school, is published five times yearly by members of the Journalism class. Fransalian writers believe in the profession of journalism. They believe that the Fransalian is a sacred trust; that all who are connected with it have as their purpose the duty of urging readers to a better way of living.

The Fransalian strives through its pages to be a living spark from the Great Flame of the Church—the Mystical Body of Christ.

Fransalian presents "Pageant of Youth" at St. Francis for the year of 1953-1954. Long, busy, but happy hours were spent grinding cameras, creating copy and making frantic phone calls and dashing trips to "Andy" Martelon of Hirschfeld's. The all-star casting was made possible through the enthusiastic cooperation of Mother Thomasine, our principal, and Father Robert Kekeisen of the Denver Register System, our excellent director in all the parts that were difficult to handle.

Our Lady's Court . . .

Smiles of encouragement for the Gremlin players came from Coach Everett Stewart and Monsignor Gregory Smith as they planned the 1953 football season for the Gremlins.

The Big Four . . .

And then there were nine . . .

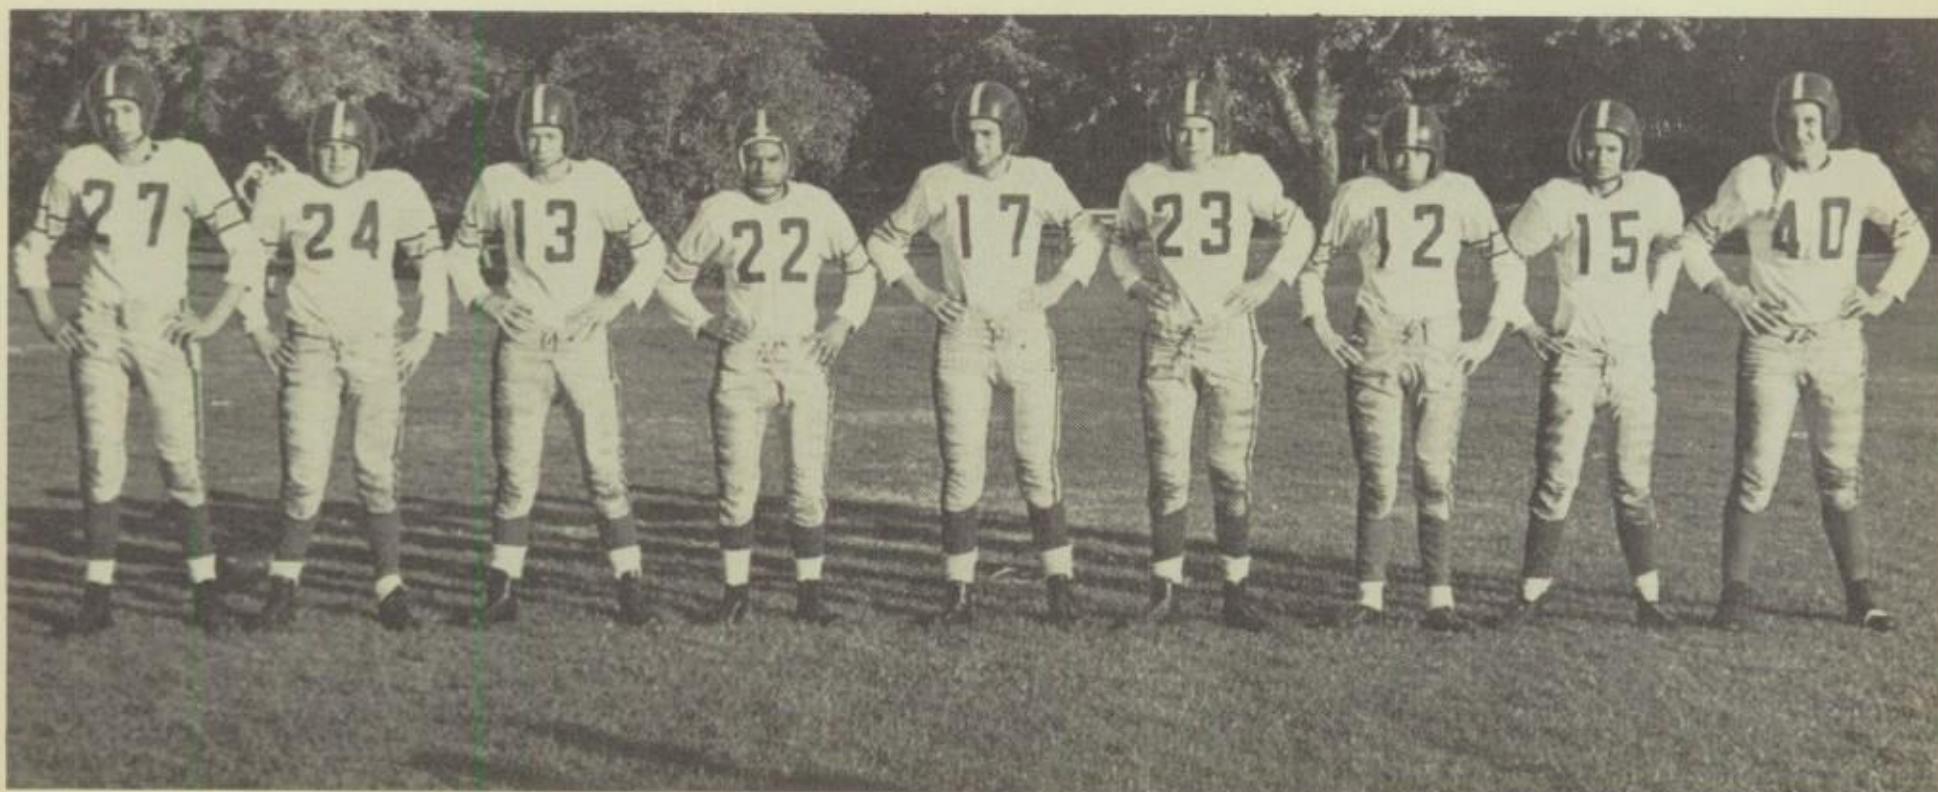

From left, William Vorbeck, Albert Thyfault, Paul Watson, Jack Fulham, Louis Nelan, John Bagan, Ronald Burke, Daniel Clifford and Charles Kirby.

1953 Season

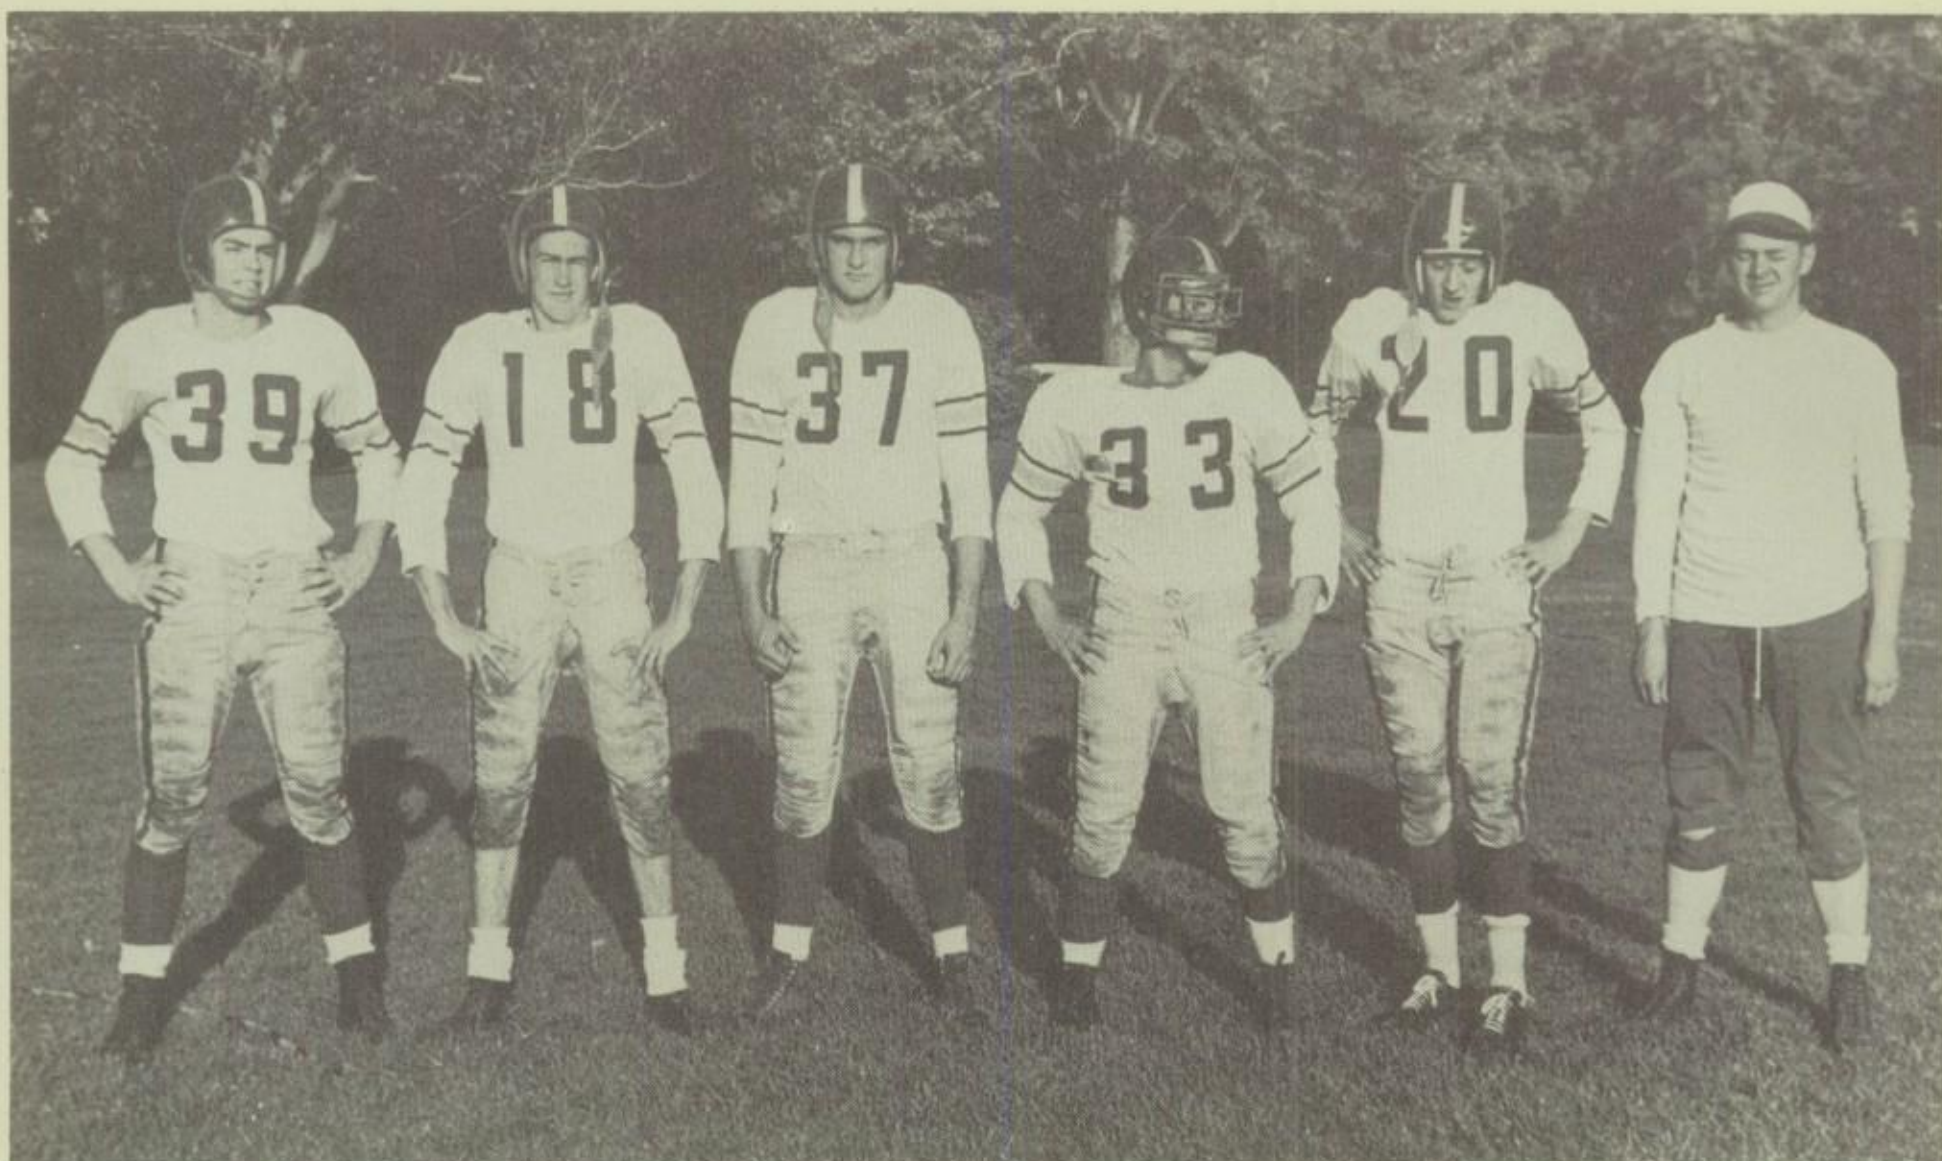

St. Francis	0	—	Arvada	6
St. Francis	7	—	Pueblo Catholic	33
St. Francis	6	—	Mullen	19
St. Francis	0	—	Holy Family	25

St. Francis	0	—	Regis	36
St. Francis	14	—	Cathedral	31
St. Francis	0	—	Annunciation	19
St. Francis	0	—	St. Joseph	6

And then there were nine more . . .

Howard Braham, John Etchepare, Joseph Ryan, Norman Silva, James Pacheco, Michael Nochazel, Jack Theisen, Roy Hayes and Robert Connelly.

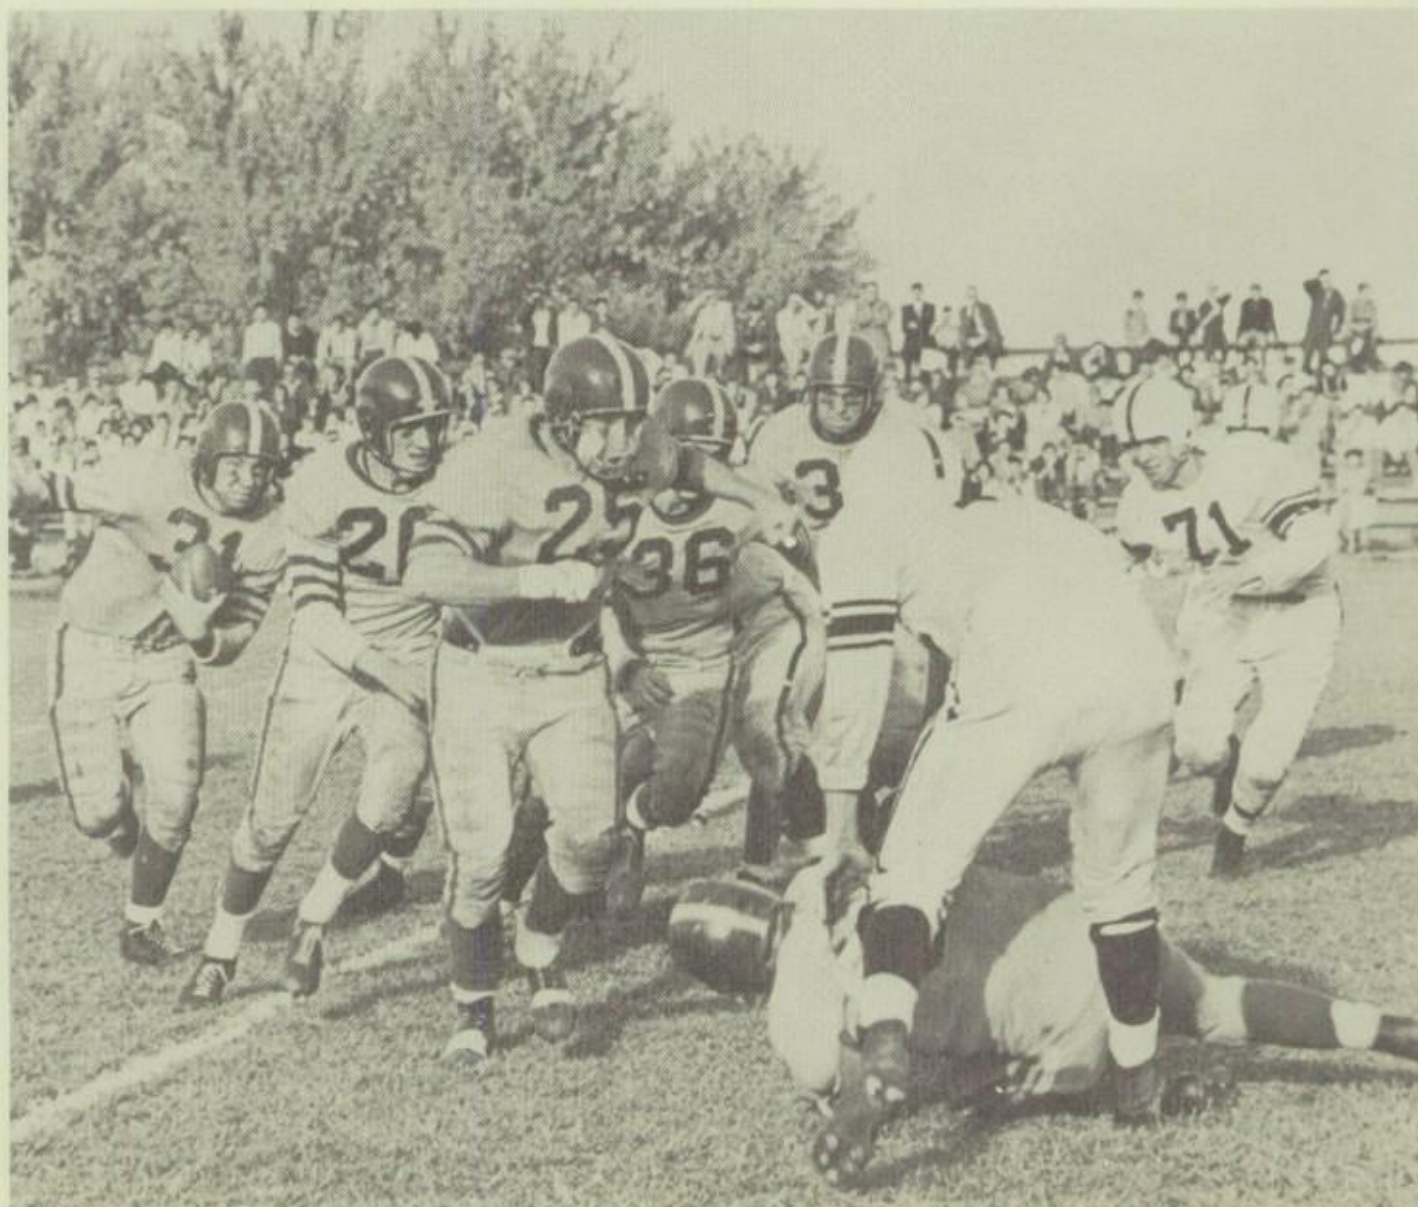

Is it the sun or the stars?

Patent-leather Kid

on the Gridiron . . .

Fred Burke (25) and temmates bowl over Bluejays for ball-carrier Edward Duffy.

Brother Act . . .

Eloy Mares (77) All-American from Annunciation falls down and goes boom as Thomas Coogan tackles him. Fred Burke (25) and his brother Ronald (21) and Leslie Hickman (34) find the situation well to their liking.

My Man . . .

William McCabe (20) is really attached to his man from Cathedral. This was the game of the season to remember because the Gremlins, cellar-dwellers, led the powerful Bluejays 14-7 at the end of the first quarter. Ronald Burke recovering a fumble ran 57 yards to score against Cathedral. Cathedral won the game.

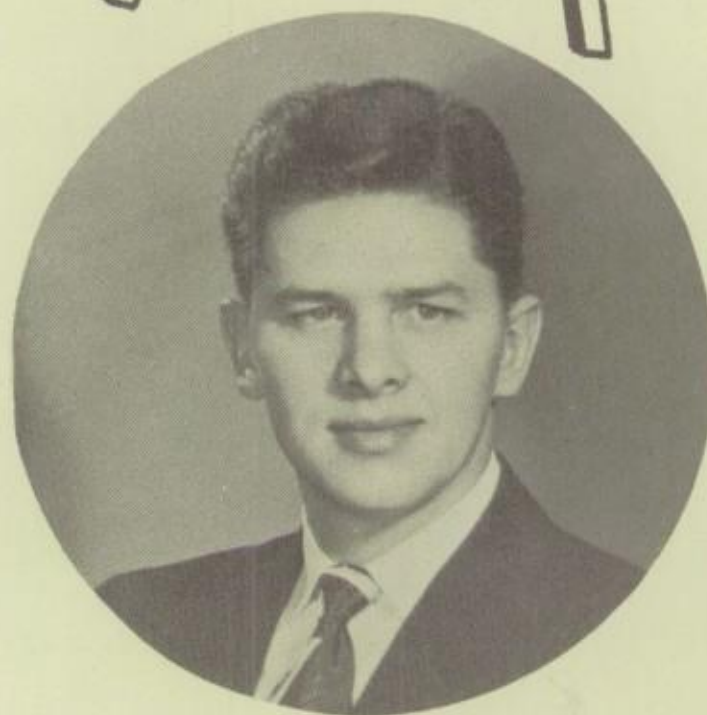

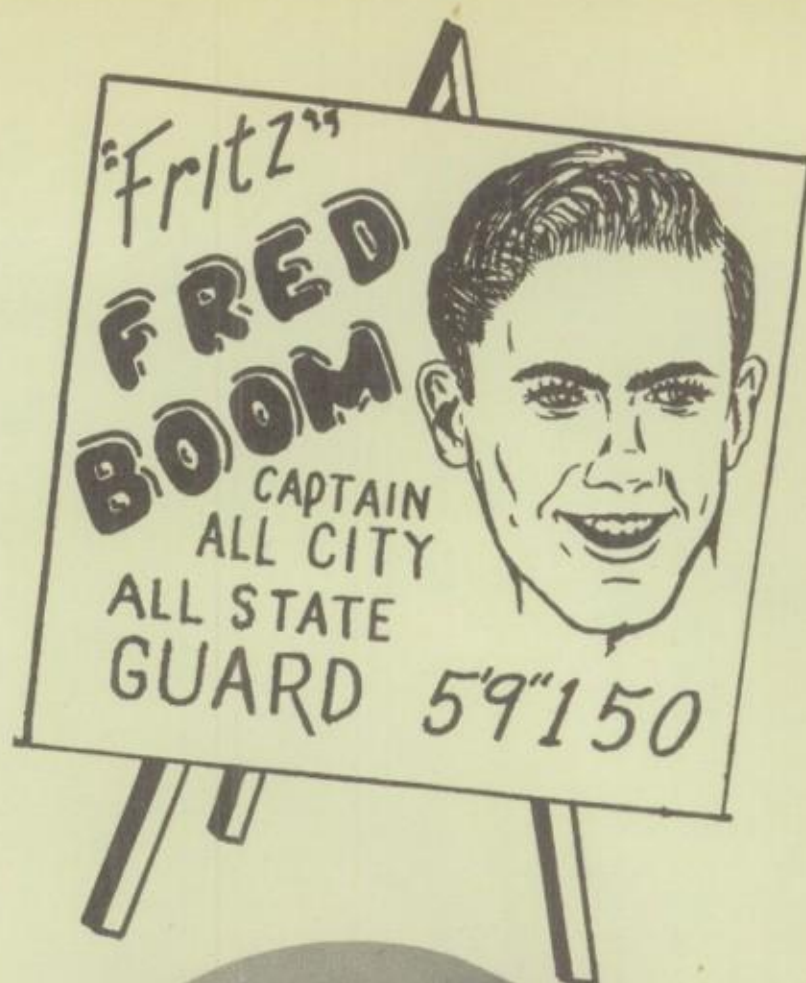

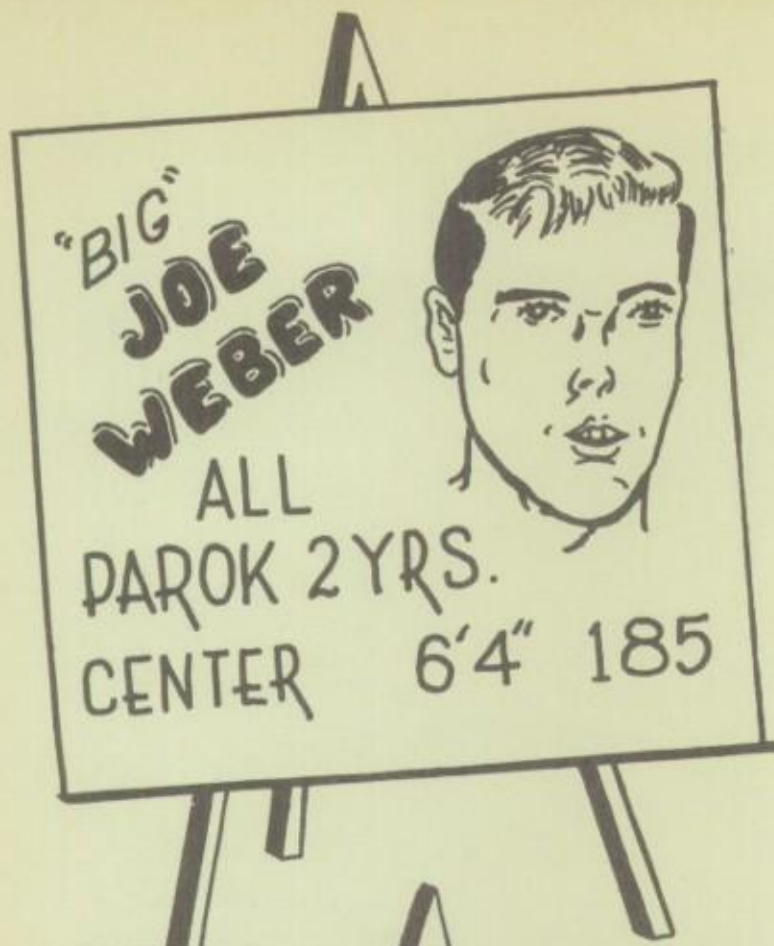

All-Parochial Honors

First Team Fred Burke
Second Team Edward Duffy
Honorable Mention . . . Thomas Coogan

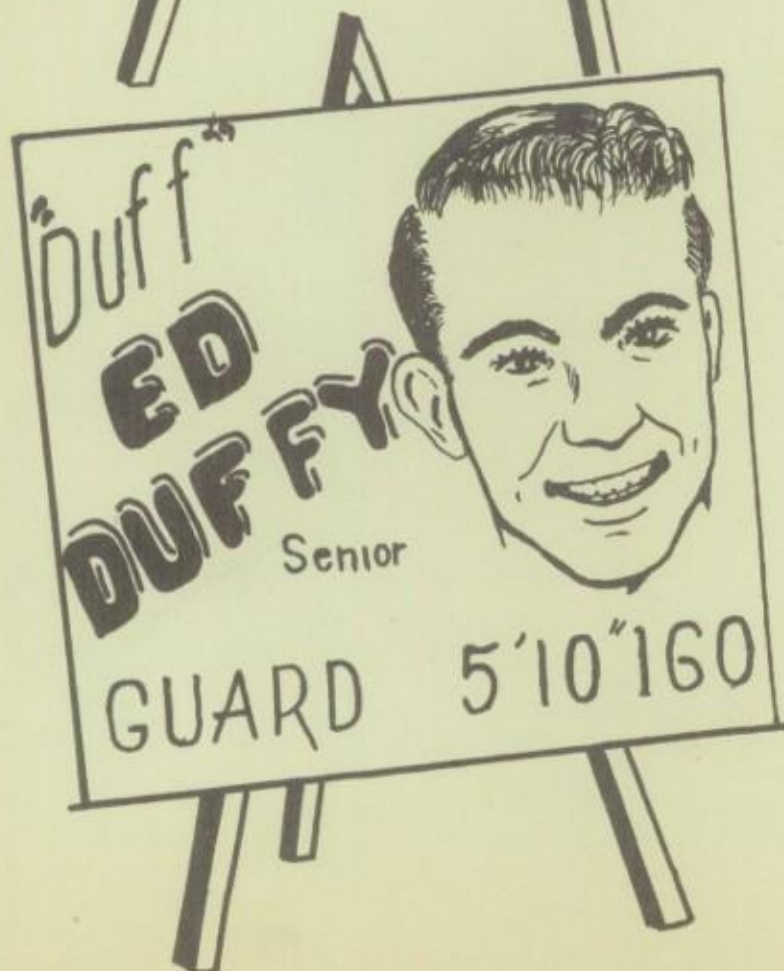

This He Likes . . .

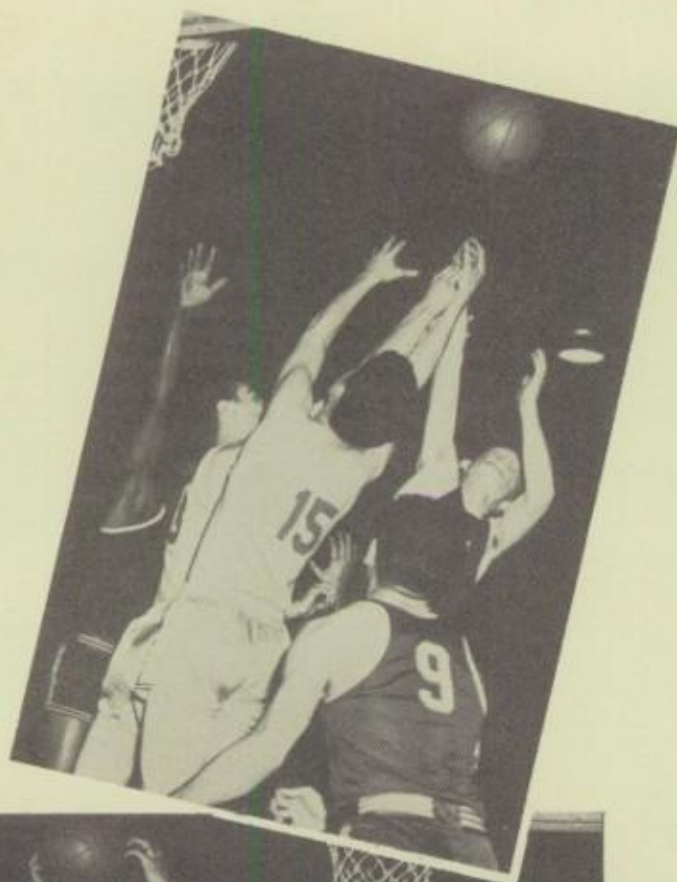

Captain Burke crowns Joanne McInnis queen of the gridiron Gremlins for 1953. Betty Fulham, senior attendant, looks as happy as Fred and "Joni."

COACH STROHAUSER

"That's my ball, boys," says Louis Nelan of the Gremlins to the Cardinals from Annunciation.

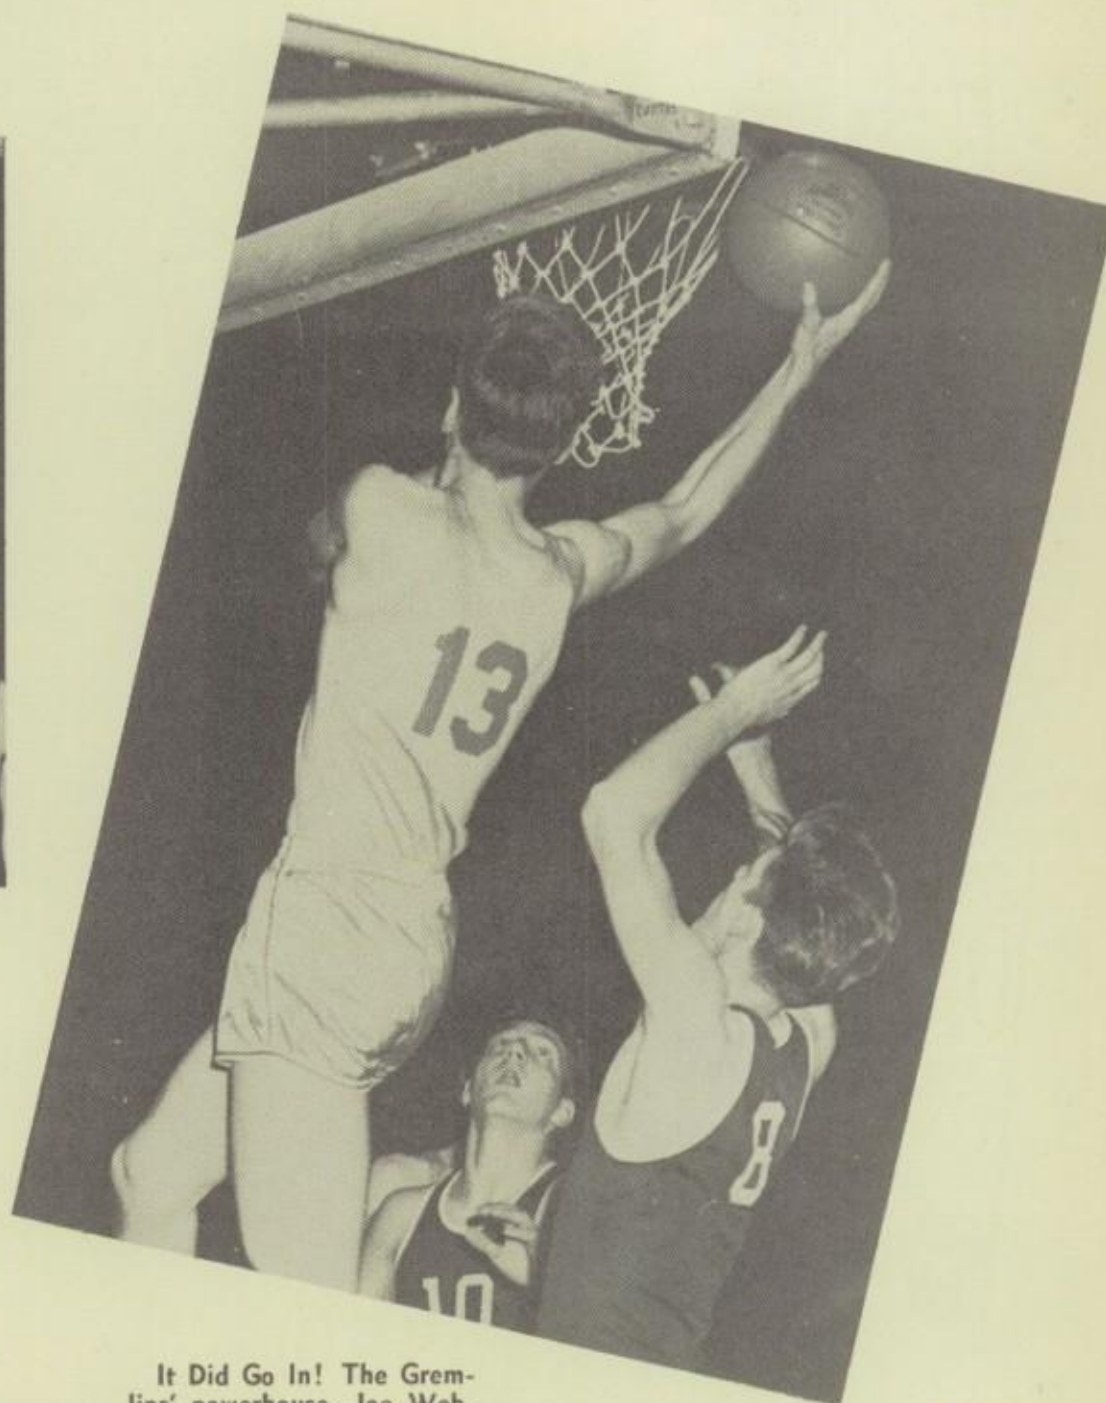

The Whole Town's Talking About The Gremlin Boys . . .

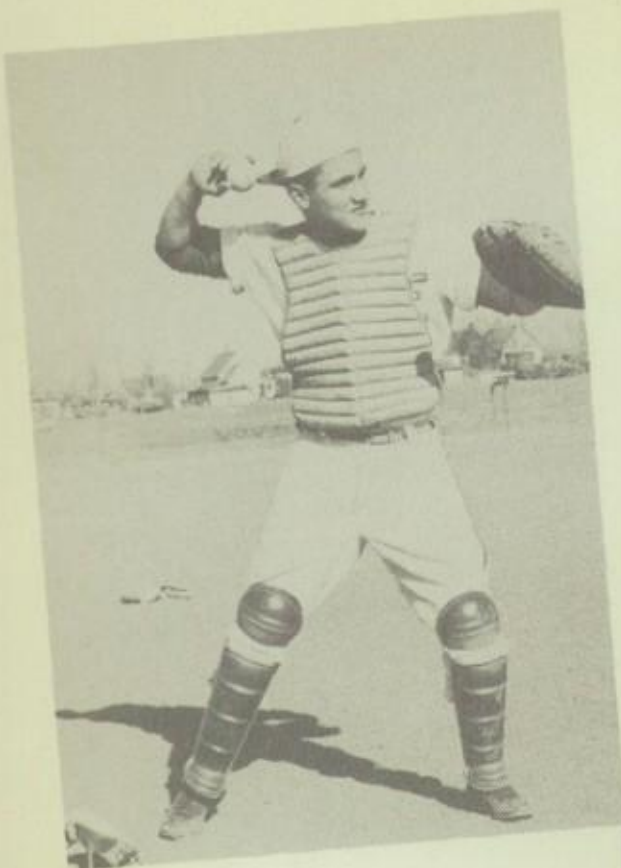

Too tall for Regis is Joe Weber who is taking control of the basket situation.

St. Francis 35.....	Annunciation 43
St. Francis 42.....	Cathedral 36
St. Francis 48.....	Mullen 32
St. Francis 39.....	Holy Family 51

St. Francis 45.....	St. Joseph 46
St. Francis 48.....	Regis 60
St. Francis 81.....	Mt. Carmel 26

It Did Go In! The Gremlins' powerhouse, Joe Weber, chalked up two more points in the Raider game.

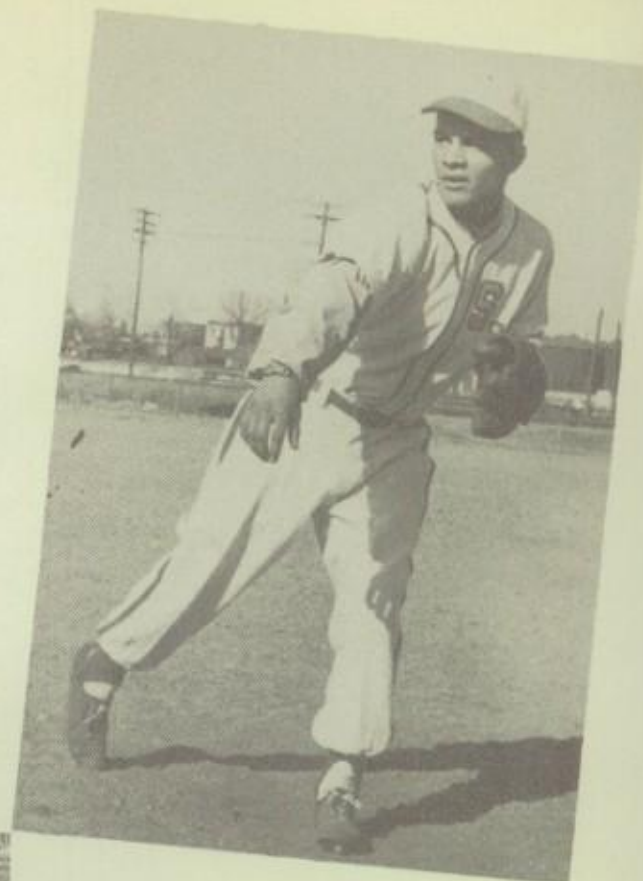

IT'S A LONG WAY TO SECOND . . .

A good right arm is displayed by catcher John Bagnall as he tries to pick off a runner at second.

THE PIVOTAL MAN PIVOTS . . .

Veritable H-bomb energy is unleashed by Jim Pacheco after a windup that would break a clock.

IT HAD TO BE GOOD . . .

Norm Silva, up-and-coming freshman hurler, shows great promise as he lays one down the middle.

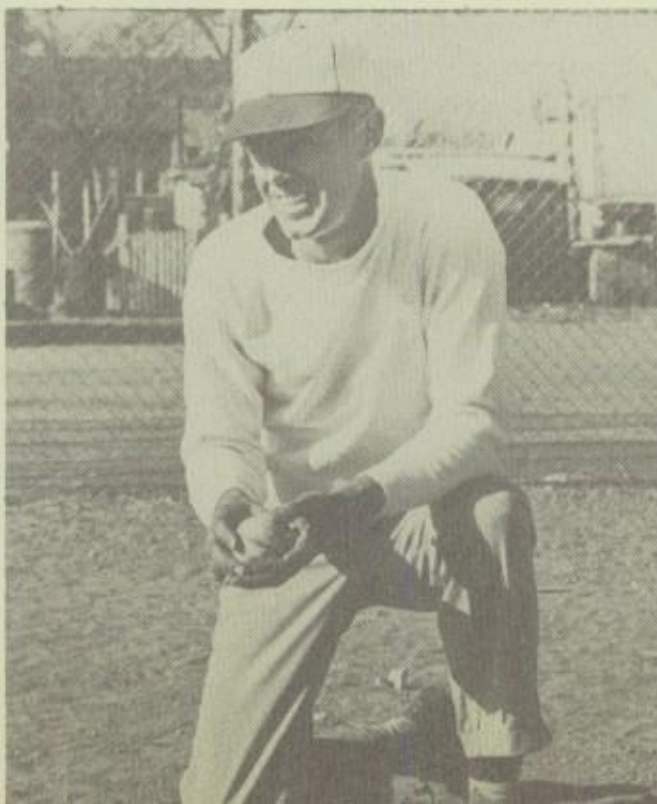

ONE THAT DIDN'T GET BY . . .

Andy Dickson, third baseman, handles the hot corner with the efficiency of a big league veteran.

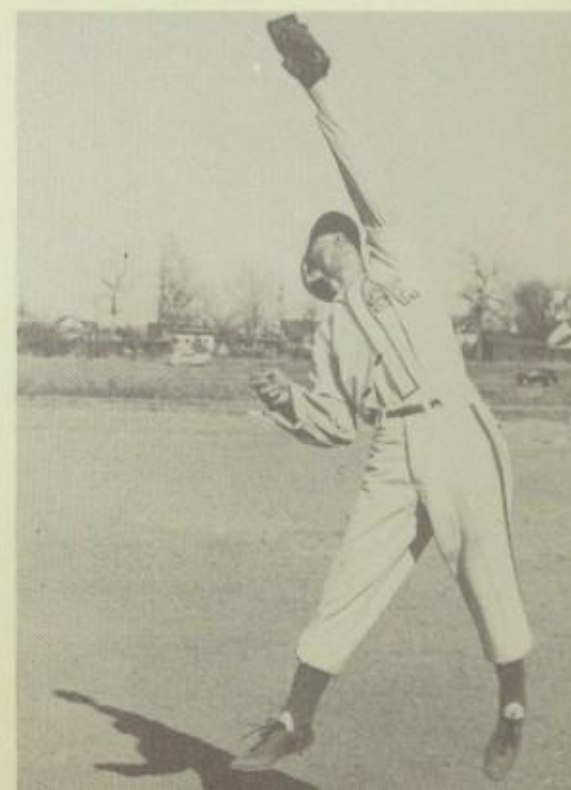

LOVE THAT TEAM . . .

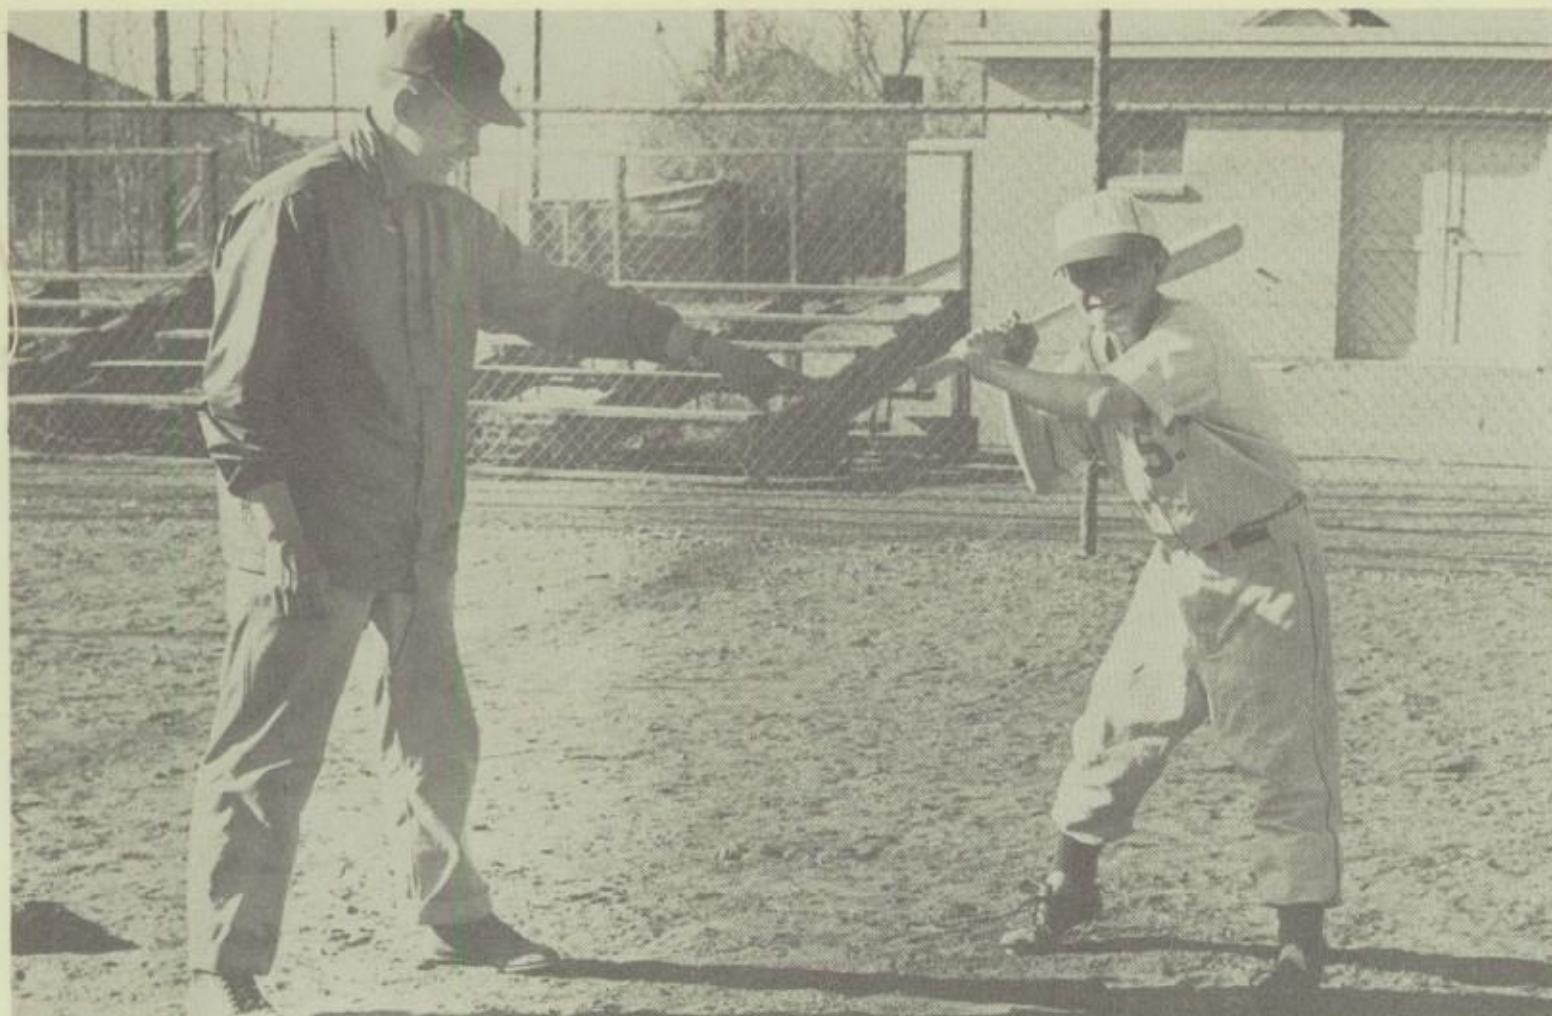

Complacent satisfaction glows in the face of Ade Butler, assistant coach, when he sees the practice-field lessons pay off.

THE LONG STRETCH . . .

A good facsimile of an India rubber man is given by Captain Fred Boom in his leap to stab a hard line drive.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE . . .

Wendy—Coach Wendy Strohauer schools Tom McCabe, soph hopeful, in some of the fine points of wielding the hickory.

THE BIG SCOOP . . .

Denny Stebenne, who holds down second, lies in wait for a hot grounder.

WHEN ANY DECISION IS WRONG . . .

Bill McCabe comes into third horizontal in an attempt to beat the toss made to baseman Lou Nelan.

Back row:
From left: Frances Imhoff, Margaret Fitzpatrick, Joan Marshino, Mary Connors, Delores Jones and Margaret Guerin.

Cage Stars of 1954

Summary of Act IV

School bells rang out the symphony of invitation to new and returning students on September 9. For many, those dear dread days were fortified by a summer well-spent; mountain picnics; the Jurgens' strains along the Elitch midway; watching our Denver Bears fall short of first place; all of these and many more memories salved the shock of a new school year.

The pre-season second guessers gave our Gremlins an "upset" chance in Parochial League football. Though we may have been short on score, we were long on spirit; every game was championship with everyone of us! Homecoming highlights every season, and this was no exception. The game of the day, the charm of our queen, the gaiety of the dance all made fun and sparkle for Alumni and students alike.

The holiday spirit has its initiation with Thanksgiving and the Senior Press Dance to the melodies of the Cranberry Capers. Wendy's hoopsters served cautious notice to the Paroke Basketball teams in capturing the pre-season basketball tournament at St. Joe's in early December. All English classes finished Santa Claus letters by December 19, and school was dismissed for the festive season.

All Fransalians passed semester exams, and so the "Flunkers' Frolic" was better known as the Pep Club Dance, held in the Cathedral Room at the Albany Hotel, on Thursday evening, January 26 . . . a fitting vigil for our patronal feast January 28.

The Father Harris' combined spiritual efforts in directing and advising our seniors in their last high school retreat. All took advantage of these special opportunities and used these days to again bring themselves ever closer to the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

The star-studded date on our social calendar, April 23, brought Star Dust and Moon Glow (to every couple) at the junior-senior promenade at Beautiful Loretto's Machebeuf Hall. Pressed corsages and dance tallies in many a scrap book will long keep the memories of a treasured evening.

May 13, the anniversary of Our Lady's apparition at Fatima, we honored our Queen in a special May Day celebration. In this Marian Year we dedicate ourselves in a most special way to Our Heavenly Mother with a pledge of fidelity to her and her Divine Son.

June 6, "au revoir" and not goodbye! With mixed emotions of sorrow and gladness, we, the class of 1954, will now take our place among the finished students of St. Francis high school with the earnest prayer and hope that we ever be a tribute to our school, our families and ourselves for the treasure of our Catholic education that has been given to us through the sacrifices of parents and teachers. We give you our pledge to be loyal alumni and earnestly pray that we will all meet in the great Homecoming of God's Eternal Happiness!

Fog

The fog comes on little cat feet.

It sits looking over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then, moves on.

Go anywhere, provided it be forward.
